ARTICLE IV
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number, Term or Office. The District shall be managed and controlled by a Board of Directors consisting of three (3) Directors. One shall serve for four (4) years, one for two (2) years and one for two (2) years after formation of the District and until their successors are elected and qualified at the regular scheduled subsequent director elections set forth below and as provided in the Special District Elections Act of 1994 (W.S. § 22-29-101 et. seq.)

Section 2. Time of Election. Elections for directors or special election shall be held by mail ballot election or regular election procedures pursuant to the Special District Elections Act of 1994 and rules promulgated by the Secretary of State for special district elections. The election of directors for elections subsequent to the organizational election shall be held each year commencing with the year 2016 on the first Tuesday after the third Monday in May. An election shall be held to elect a Director to fill the vacancy resulting from the expiration of the term of the Director whose term expires at that time. Directors so elected shall serve for four (4) years. The Directors shall determine whether the election shall be by mail ballot or regular election procedures no less than sixty (60) days prior to the election.

Section 3. Notice of Election. The Secretary of the District shall publish a proclamation at least once in a Lincoln County newspaper of general circulation, not more than one hundred twenty (120) and not less than one hundred (100) days before the election. The proclamation shall set forth the date of the election, what District Officer is the filing officer, what offices are to be elected and the terms of office, the filing period for the offices and other pertinent election information. The name of all qualified candidates who file an application for election according to Section 4 below shall be published in a Lincoln County newspaper of general circulation not later than ten (10) days prior to the election date.

Section 4. Application for Election. Candidates for the office of director of the District shall file with the Secretary of the District an application for election in substantial conformance with the form set forth in the Special District Election Act of 1994 (W.S. § 22-29-110(b)). Applications shall be filed not more than ninety (90) nor less than seventy (70) days previous to the holding of the director election. The names of all qualified candidates so filed shall be printed on the ballot.

Section 5. Annual Filing of Directors. Each year the District Shall file with the County Commissioners and County Clerk a list of the names, addresses and terms of the current Directors. The filing deadline is the last day of April.

Section 6. Vacancies. A vacancy occurring on the Board during the term of an original Director or his successor shall be filled as provided in the Special District Election Act of 1994.

Section 7. Resignations. A Director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board. Unless otherwise specified in the notice, the resignation shall take effect upon receipt thereof by the Board, and the acceptance of the resignation shall be necessary to make it effective.

Section 8. Regular Meetings. A regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held without other notice than this Bylaw on the 15th day of June of each year commencing with 2016 at 7:00 p.m. (or the first day thereafter if a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday) at the Broken Wheel Ranch Office, unless otherwise designated by the Directors. Directors may provide by resolution the time and place for the holding of additional regular meetings without other notice than such resolution.

Section 9. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Directors may be called by or at the request of any (2) Directors who shall fix the time and place of the special meeting.

Section 10. Notice. Notice of any special meeting shall be given at least five (5) days before the meeting by oral or written notice to the Directors. The attendance of a Director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice, except where a Director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction or any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Section 11. Quorum. At any meeting of the Directors, two (2) Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of District business.

Section 12. Manner of Acting. The act of the majority of the Directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Directors. Directors may provide by Resolution to allow their attendance and action at meetings by telephone. Resolutions may be adopted by the Directors to assist them in carrying out the purposes and powers of the District.

Section 13. Compensation. No Director shall receive compensation for any services that he may render for the District as a Director; provided, however, that a Director may be reimbursed for expenses incurred in performance of his duties as a Director to the extent such expenses are approved by the Board of Directors as actual and necessary expenses. A director may be compensated for services rendered to the District other than in capacity as a Director.

Section 14. Conflict of Interest. No Director shall be directly interested financially in any contract, word done or property purchased by the District, unless he has made full public disclosure and the non-interested Board Members have unanimously approved his financial interest.

Section 15. Presumption of Assent. A Director of the District who is present at a meeting of the Directors at which action on any matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action unless his dissent shall be entered in the minutes or unless he shall file his written dissent to such action with the person acting as the Secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent by certified mail to the Secretary of the District immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a Director who voted in favor of such action.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

Section 1. Number. The officers of the District shall be the President, Secretary, Treasurer, and such other officers with such powers and duties not inconsistent with these Bylaws, as may be appointed and determined by the Board of Directors. Any two offices, except those of the President and Secretary, may be held by the same person.

Section 2. Election, Term of Office and Qualifications. Each year the Board shall as soon as they are qualified and no later than the annual June meeting, elect a president, treasurer, secretary and other officers of the District they may designate. The President shall be elected by the Board of Directors from among their number, and the other officers shall be elected by the Board of Directors from among such persons as the Board of Directors may see fit.

Section 3. Vacancies. In case any office of the District becomes vacant by death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or any other cause, the majority of the Directors then in office, although less than a quorum, may elect an officer to fill such vacancy, and the officer so elected shall hold office and serve until the election of his successor according to Section 2 above.

Section 4. President. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors. He shall have and exercise general charge and supervision of the affairs of the District and shall do and perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors.

Section 5. Secretary. The Secretary shall charge of such books, documents and papers as the Board of Directors may determine and shall have the custody of the corporate seal. The Secretary shall attend and keep the minutes of all the meetings of the Board of Directors. He shall keep a record, containing the names, alphabetically arranged, of all landowners and electors within the District, showing their places of residence, and such book shall be open for inspection as prescribed by law. He may sign with the President, in the name and on behalf of the District, any contract or agreements authorized or ordered by the Board of Directors, and when so authorized or ordered by the Board of Directors, he may affix the seal of the District. He shall, in general, perform all the duties incident to the office of Secretary, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, and shall do and perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of all funds, property, and securities of the District, subject to such regulations, as may be imposed by the Board of Directors. He may be required to give bond for the faithful performance of his duties in such sum and form and with sureties as the Board of Directors may require. See W.S. § 38-2-104 for sample form. When necessary or proper, he may endorse on behalf of the District for collection checks, notes, and other obligations, and shall deposit the same to the credit of the District as such bank or banks or depository as the Board of Directors may designate. He shall sign all checks of the District and all bills of exchange and promissory notes issued by the District except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly designated by the Board of Directors or by these Bylaws to some other office or agent of the District. He shall enter regularly on the books of the District to be kept by him for the purpose, full and accurate account of all monies, and obligations received and paid or incurred by him for or on account of the District, and shall exhibit such books at all reasonable times to any Director, landowner or elector residing or owning property in the District on application at the offices of the District. He shall, in general, perform all duties incident to the office of Treasurer, subject to the control of the Board of Directors.

Section 7. Removal. Any officer may be removed from office by the majority vote of all the Directors at any regular or special meeting called for that purpose, for nonfeasance, malfeasance, or misfeasance, for conduct detrimental to the interests of the District, for lack of sympathy with its objects, or for refusal to render reasonable assistance in carrying out its purposes. Any officer proposed to be removed, shall be entitled to at least five (5) days notice in writing by mail of the meeting of the Board of Directors at such meeting. Any removal shall be without prejudice to the contract right, if any, of the person so removed.

ARTICLE VI DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS: OATHS AND BONDS

Section 1. Oaths of Office Required: Bonds. All Directors shall take, subscribe and file the oath of office provided in Wyoming constitution, Article VI, Section 20. Oath shall be taken before an officer authorized to administer oaths within ten (10) days after notification of election or appointment. A copy of the completed written oath shall be transmitted, without delay, to the County Clerk for the first election and to the Secretary of the District thereafter. Directors and Officers shall execute and file their official bonds to the District to insure the honest and faithful performance of their official duties, as provided by law and these rules.

Section 2. Directors. If required by law, or if resolved by the Board, Directors shall each have a bond approved by the Directors of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) or an amount otherwise specified by the Directors.

Section 3. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have a bond in an amount approved by the Directors, but in no event less than five thousand ($5,000.00). See W.S. § 38-2-101. Bond shall be with an approved surety or guaranty company or bondsman pursuant to W.S. § 38-2-102.

Section 4. Secretary. If required by law, or if resolved by the Board, the Secretary shall have a bond approved by the Directors of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) or an amount otherwise specified.

Section 5. Employees. If required by law, the Directors may require any District employees, who receives District revenue, to execute a bond with the District in the penal sum of one and one half (1.5) times the amount of revenue received.

Section 6. Sureties. Sureties of official bonds shall be residents of Wyoming; provided however, that any surety or guaranty company, duly qualified to act as a surety or guarantor in Wyoming, upon executing such bonds shall be accepted in lieu of resident sureties. Sureties shall have a net worth of twice the amount secured by the bond and each shall sign an affidavit, which will be endorsed on the bond, of his net worth. See W.S. § 38-2-102; 18-3-102.

Section 7. Form of Bond. The bond for any Director or Officer having custody of moneys shall be conditioned that such Officer or Director shall faithfully perform all of the duties of his office as prescribed by law, and that he will safely keep all moneys which may come into his hands by virtue of his office, that he will promptly pay over to the person or persons legally provided by law, and that he will deliver over to his successor in office all moneys held by him as such Officer or Director. All bonds may be conditioned according to the form set forth at W.S. § 38-2-104, or as such statute may hereafter be amended. See W.S. § 38-2-101; 38-2-104.

ARTICLE VII ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The Board of Directors may appoint from their number, or from among such persons as the Board may see fit, one or more advisory committees, and at any time may appoint additional members thereto. The members of any such committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. Such advisory committees shall advise and aid the officers of the District in all matters designated by the Board of Directors. Each such committee may, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors, prescribe rules and regulations for the call and conduct of meetings of the committee and other matters relating to its procedure.

The members of any advisory committee shall not receive any stated salary for their services as such; provided, however, the Board of Directors shall have the discretionary power to contract for unusual or exceptional services to the District, and award special compensation appropriate to the value of such services.

ARTICLE VIII INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Indemnification Generally. When liability is alleged against any District Director, officer or employee, if the District Board of Directors determines that he was acting within the scope of his duty, whether or not alleged to have been committed maliciously or fraudulently, the District shall save harmless, and indemnify such Director, officer or employee against any tort claim or judgment arising out of any act or omission occurring within the scope of aid Director's, officer's or employee's duties. See W.S. § 1-39-104(b). Such indemnification shall include any amounts paid in settlement, and expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense of any action, suit, or proceeding in which he is made a party by reason of being of having been such Director, officer or employer.

Section 2. Advances. Expenses incurred in defending an action, suit, or proceeding as contemplated in this Article may be paid by the District in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon a majority vote of a quorum of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IX
FORM OF ELECTIONS

The District may conduct, by mail ballot, elections to enlarge, withdraw, merge, consolidate, dissolve and such other elections required or permitted under the Improvement and Service District Act. The District may also pay the return postage of mail and absentee ballots.

ARTICLE X
RULES AND REGULATIONS

The Board of Directors shall adopt rules, regulations and procedures for the District, including those to govern the use and enjoyment of public improvements, facilities and services of the District (W.S. § 18-12-114(b)), and may adopt reasonable rules and regulations not inconsistent with law for the government and control of the district organization and to facilitate the collection of assessments or charges. See W.S. § 18-12-139. The District's rules, regulations and procedures shall be adopted pursuant to the requirements of the Wyoming Administrative Procedure Act.

ARTICLE XI
AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Amendment by Directors. The Directors may amend these Bylaws upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the Directors; provided, however, that no such amendment, other than amendments having to do with interpretive bylaws or statements of general policy, shall be effective if two-thirds (2/3) of the District's property owners, or two-thirds (2/3) of the District's electors, as defined by W.S. § 18-12-102(a)(vii) or as such statute may hereafter be amended, object to such amendment in writing prior to the date of adoption of the amendment in accordance with the procedure set forth in Article XI Section 2. Any amendment defeated by the electors as set forth in Article XI shall not be reintroduced for consideration by the Directors for a period of one (1) year. No amendment shall be effective if contrary to law.

Section 2. Procedure for Adopting Amendments. Prior to the Directors' adoption of an amendment to the Bylaws, the Directors shall give at least forty-five (45) days notice in accordance with the Wyoming Administrative Procedures Act. See W.S. § 16-3-103. Notice shall also be mailed to all persons making timely requests of the District for advanced notice of any amendments or rule-making proceedings.

The Directors shall afford all interested persons reasonable opportunity to submit their views or arguments in writing; provided, however, that in the case of substantive rules, opportunity for oral hearing shall be granted if requested by twenty-five (25) persons, or by a governmental subdivision, or by an association having not less than twenty-five (25) members, said hearing to be conducted not earlier than forty-five (45) days after the date notice of amendment is published. See W.S. § 16-3-101(a)(ii)(A).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Board of Directors of the Broken Wheel Ranch Improvement and Service District has adopted these Bylaws effective the 7th day of February, 2017.
